CALIBRON

Saint Mary's we salute you,
Our Alma Mater true.
Through all the years we'll follow
Your name where'er we go.
We've come to know and love you
And want the world to know
That we will keep forever bright
Our trust in the green and white.

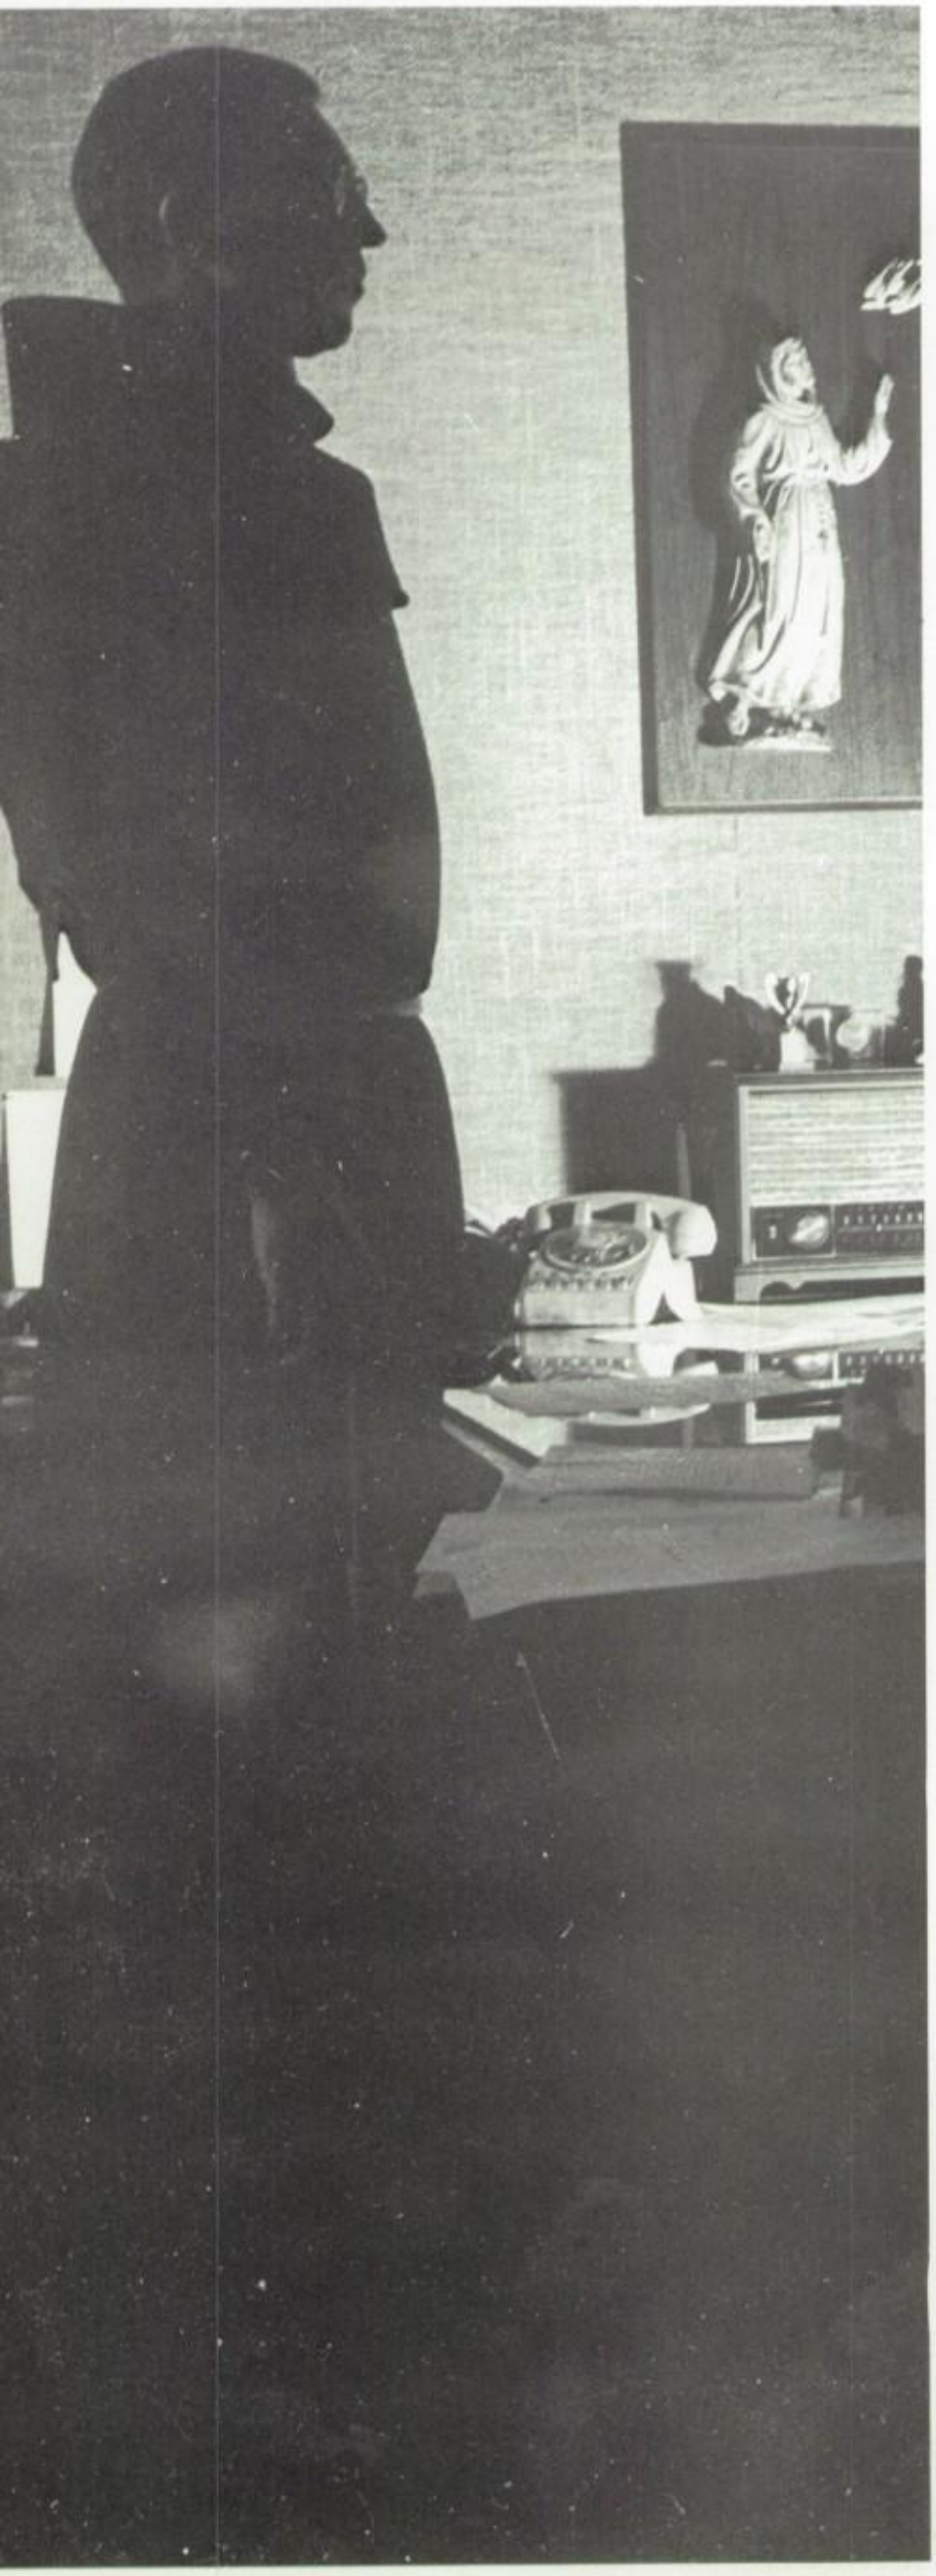
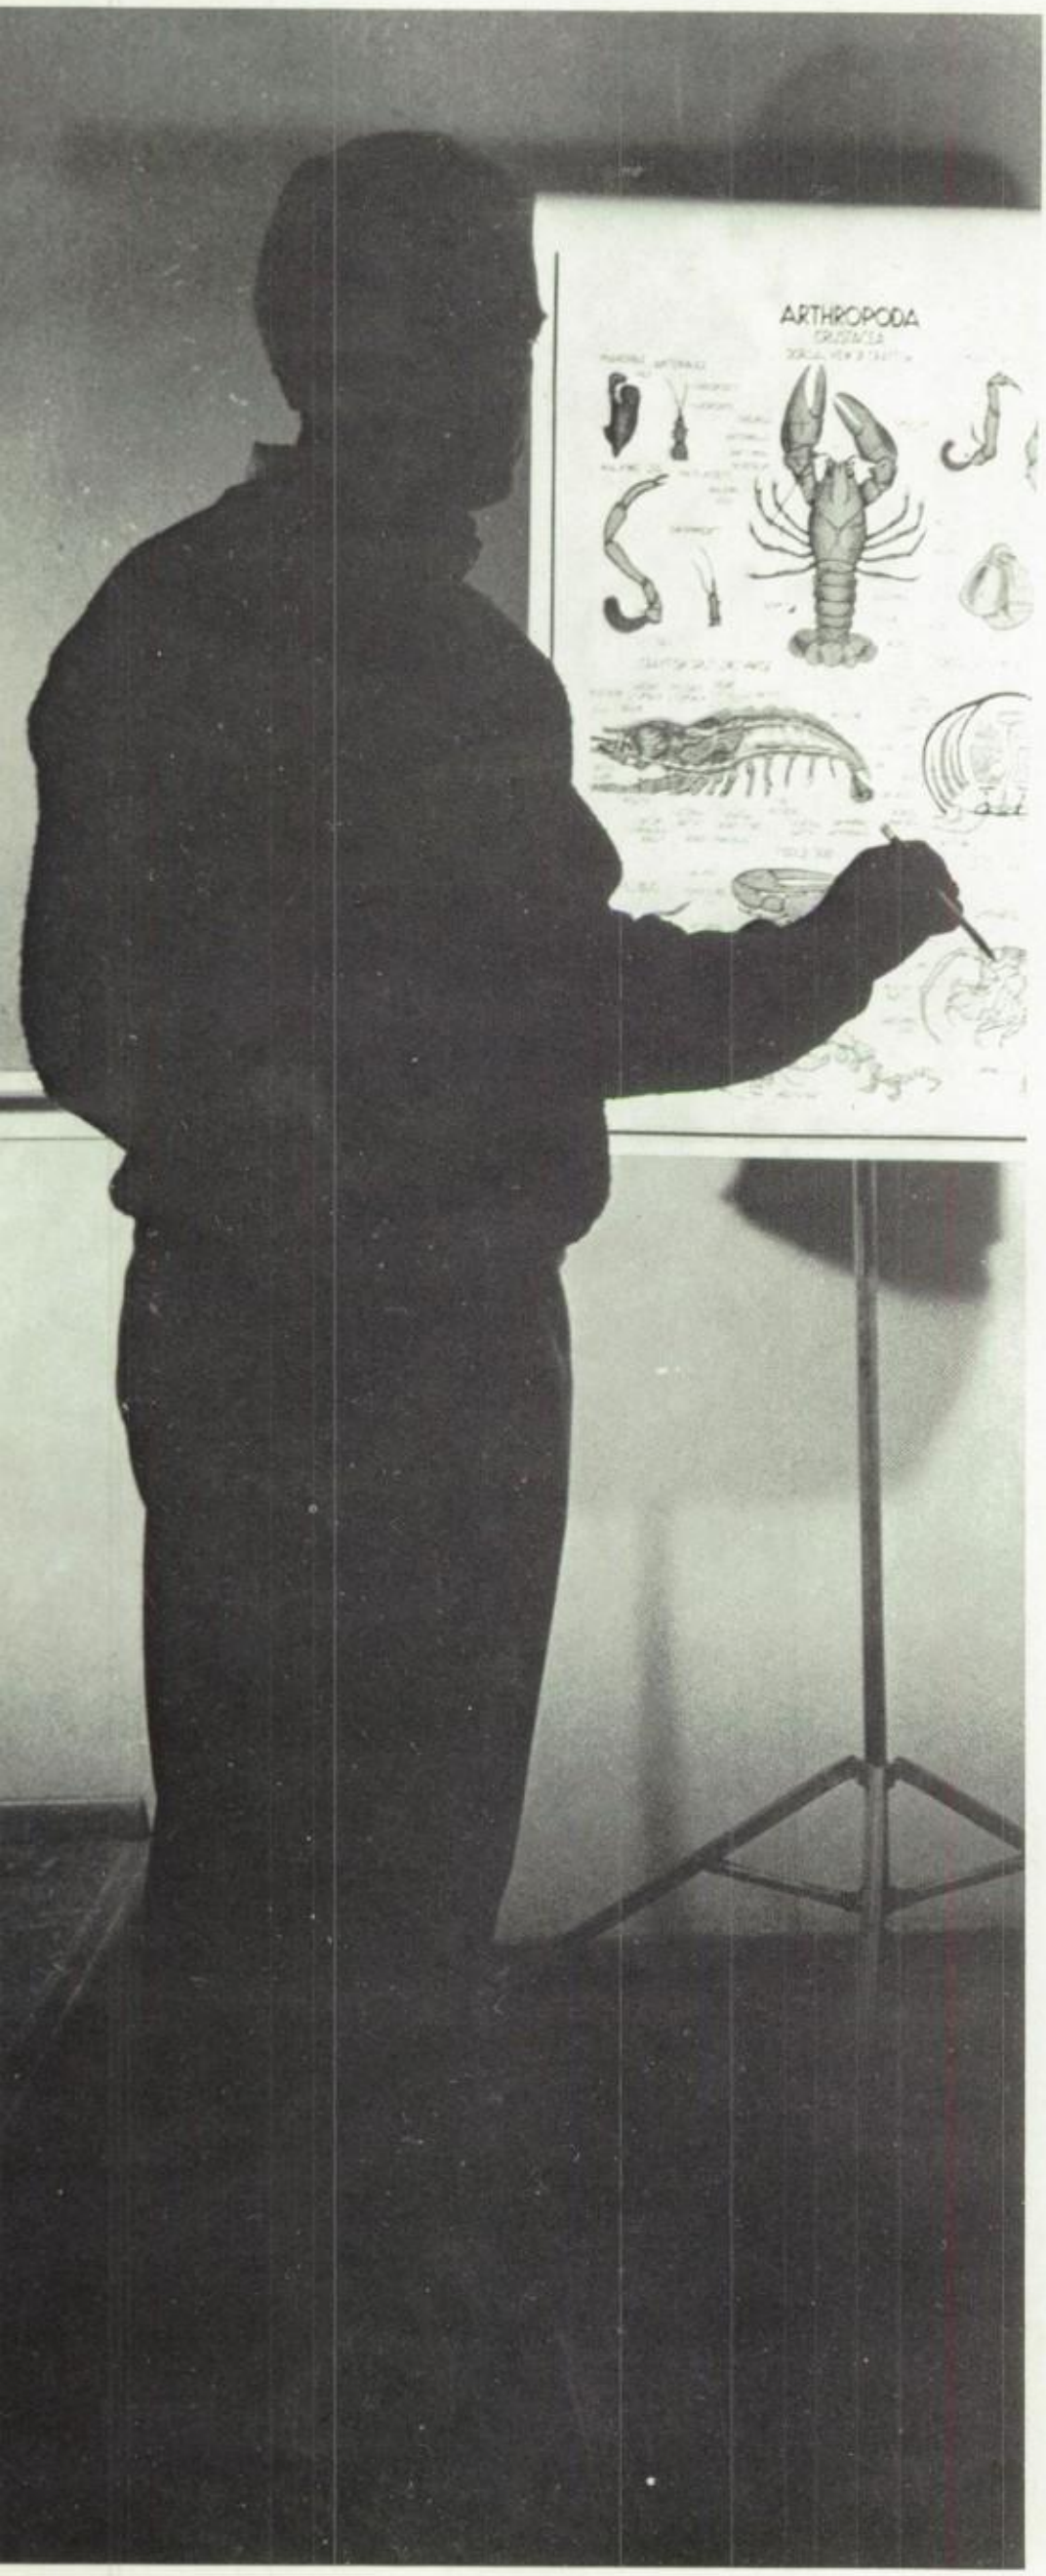
Knowing what love is
You try, with quiet strength
To guide us on its path.

To the Franciscan friars
We dedicate our yearbook
And here add our thanks.





Faculty and Administration

They plan,

They work,

They hope,

and then, at the signal,

They attack.

We sit,

We listen,

We think,

and at the command

We answer.

And then, we discover.

We are the victors.

We have learned.

They smile,

We smile . . .

The smile of friends.

Seniors

Well, you've started,

And you're on your way.

The world is open to you.

Look back with fond memories;

Look forward with great wisdom.

Give life to your ideals

And never deviate from your principles.

Go forward to make your mark on the world.

Underclassmen

You have so much space

In which to grow.

What is this space?

The endless capacity of your mind.

The unlimited love of a friend,

The freedom to be an individual . . .

So many goals yet to fulfill.

What are these goals?

To fill the space you have

In which to grow.

For us, the class of 1969, this is the time, and St. Mary's the place to discover ourselves, to establish our individuality, and to evaluate life in its proper proportions.

We have the idealism and the enthusiasm of youth and are developing the maturity that marks us as adults.

We manifested our unity, spirit, cooperation, and leadership by placing first in the homecoming float competition.

It's a HAPPENING

When we first appeared at St. Mary's in 1966, we were an assorted group of green, wide-eyed freshmen. Now firmly launched into our second year the greenness has worn off, and we are established members of the St. Mary's student body.

We have numerous credits to our name such as victories in football and basketball games, our high scholastic average, and our dynamic class spirit.

School is always highly interesting, continually challenging, and ever-changing. With each year will come memorable occasions and unique experiences which we will treasure for the rest of our lives.

We freshmen were first introduced to St. Mary's when we were entertained by the seniors at a get-acquainted party late in the summer. Keeping visions of our future Senior status in mind, we patiently endured initiation, and through participation in the chocolate drive, the homecoming parade, and other activities, we have made ourselves a part of St. Mary's. We look forward to the remaining years of our high school career.

Boys' Senate

Both juniors and seniors are members of the Boys' Senate. Their function is not only to guide and discipline, but to set an example as well. Mr. Harold Speiss is moderator, and Larry Larranaga is president, assisted by Peter Shoemaker, vice-president; Joe Zieter, clerk-treasurer; Earl Lavagnino, clerk; and Tony Satterfield, sergeant-at-arms.

Girls' Cabinet

The eighteen members of the Girls' Cabinet, all seniors, are elected by the girls of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. Their task is to enforce good standards of behavior and dress. This year Mary McGurk is president, Sandy Michael is vice-president, Leann Gray is secretary, and Sue Schmitt is treasurer, with Sr. M. Jonathan, O.P. as moderator.

California Scholarship Federation

The California Scholarship Federation could easily become one of the school's most exclusive clubs. Despite the strict requirements for membership, St. Mary's students continue to overflow the club. Sister M. Carl, O.P. is the adviser and Peter Shoemaker is the president, assisted by Dorothy McNoble, vice-president, Ann Adams, secretary, and Chris Mayer, treasurer, C.S.F. members received pins at the Honors Assembly held in February.

C.S.F. members played a major role in the Honors Assembly.

Cauldron

". . . room 12 at the break!" "Remember—it's lunch in #12!" "All Cauldron staff members report to the art room immediately!" And so the work took place, and just so the Cauldron took shape! Now, thanking our valued advisers, Mrs. Thelma Clancy and Mr. William Berlin, and Fabienne Gibson, our editor, we present our final combined effort for Cauldron '68.

Kettle

Guided by Adviser Sr. Mary Francis, O.P. and Co-editors Victoria Armstrong and Susan Canlis, St. Mary's KETTLE has taken high honors. Columbia Scholastic Press Association has awarded KETTLE their highest national title, that of Medalist, and the rating All-Catholic graces KETTLE'S merits for the third consecutive year.

Model U. N.

St. Mary's Model United Nations has proved its value once again as, representing Mexico, it was selected one of the top ten outstanding delegations out of one hundred and twenty-nine. John Fanucchi marshalled the talent and knowledge of the group which included Patti Blain, Joe Diehl, Fabienne Gibson, Steve Hope, Kathy Horvath, Dorothy McNoble, Bill Shoneff, and Chris Vranicar. Sister Mary Jonathan, O.P., the group's adviser, readily vouches for its hard-earned reputation.

John Fanucchi tries to gain the attention of the Secretary General.

History Club

The President of the History Club this year is Chris Vranicar. The moderator is Mr. Fausset. The purpose of the club is to explore and discuss politics, current events, and history. As well as impassioned debate, the members indulge in trips far and wide explaining California. This year's fun trip —Sausalito !

Y.C.S. is a very "vocal" group.

Y. C. S.

One of St. Mary's many assets is her Young Christian Students organization, or as it is usually known, Y.C.S. Its purpose is to evaluate what happens at St. Mary's, and if necessary, to improve upon it. Sister M. Pauline, O.P. is the group's moderator and Father Alcuin Peck, O.F.M. is the chaplain. Officers are Peter Barkett, president, and Judi Ojeda, vice-president.

Sister Pauline supervises preparation of a Y.C.S. dinner.

Y.C.S. team captains prepare a general meeting during their Sunday night meeting.

Christian Life Club

To serve the community in various ways is the purpose of the Christian Life Club. Services range from birthday parties for pre-schoolers to hospital work. This year's President is Sandi Michael. The moderators are Sister Mary Benet, O.P., Sister Mary Madalena, O.P., and Sister Mary Augustine, O.P.

Production Staff

Where would any play or assembly be without the production staff? This year found them rigging lights in the aisles of old St. Mary's church and building a thrust stage for The Boyfriend. Who are the staff members? Art Young, Mike Evans, Jeff Spielman and Jim Paulson.

The stage crew prepares the lighting for Murder in the Cathedral

Concert Choir

The concert choir of St. Mary's High School is directed by Mr. Langdon Nevens. As well as entertaining at St. Mary's, they travel and sing at concerts at other schools. This year's highlight was a trip to San Francisco.

Inscape

The literary magazine, moderated by Sister Mary Francis, O.P., is a potpourri of ideas, poetry, and short stories. The word itself describes the magazine's goal—an inward look to find something beautiful. This year's editor is Maureen Ratto.

Guitar Club

The St. Mary's guitar club welcomes all those musically inclined students with an interest in this popular instrument. The moderator of this organization is Father Alcuin (a conspiracy with the Spanish Club?)

Key Club

The Key Club, sponsored by the Stockton Kiwanis Club, is a service organization which is a great benefit to St. Mary's. Advised by Mr. Zeni, members perform services to the community and organize the school's fire and air raid drills.

Pete Shoemaker, Mike Canepa, Melvin Stagnaro, Tony Satterfield

Block S.M.

The Block S. M., composed of about thirty active athletes, is one of the major organizations at St. Mary's. Pete Shoemaker is president; Tony Satterfield, vice-president; Melvin Stagnaro, secretary-treasurer; and Mike Canepa, sergeant-at-arms.

Mary Jo Gosso, secretary; Bob Crane, vice-president, Ruth Reilley, president; Angela Frederico, treasurer

Future Teachers

Learning, teaching, and living up to their name, the Future Teachers of St. Mary's gain on-the-spot training in Stockton by visiting schools and classrooms. They spread benefits through St. Mary's by tutoring and working on C. C. D committees, by showing educational movies and by working in the faculty library.

Virginia Espinosa, president; Mrs. Whitson, Toni Flores, secretary; Cathy Chu, treasurer

Junior Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross was organized to encourage students who are interested in nursing. This year's schedule of events was marked by a book collection for a ship bound for Vietnam. The moderator is Mrs. Whitson.

St. Mary's Marching Band

Under the direction of Mr. Langdon Nevins, the band and banner girls march in formation, providing half-time entertainment at football games. New this year, the members of this group also gave an excellent performance during Homecoming festivities. Much hard work on the part of Mr. Nevins and the students has made their efforts successful and a credit to Saint Mary's.

Happenings

The corridors seemed to vibrate
With the sound of life.
In a thousand flashing moments
The reality of work and competition
Brought us unity.

Amid the bustle of accomplishment,
We found the means to discover
Others like ourselves,
Others seeking friends.

Freshman

Freshman hat winners: Neil Baysinger, first; Marci McDonnel, second; Donna Darby and Rick Gibson, third

Saint Mary's, a family tratition.

Marcie McDonald humbly recites "Almighty senior, to thee I bow . . ."

Initiation

Mark Misasi found that freshmen have a hard time maturing.

Freshmen, read this and remember. This was the year that humiliation was de-emphasized and orientation was the goal. There were still the merry pranks, but this year the seniors to whom you bowed might have asked you if everything was going well. Freshmen were still made to do ridiculous things, but the laughter on the part of the seniors wasn't cruel. More often than not, the freshmen were laughing too. The seniors weren't always gracious; the freshmen weren't always good-humored, but there was the tangible difference from previous initiations, right up to the rally. Beneath the "Welcome Frosh" sign everybody felt good, for everybody was part of St. Mary's.

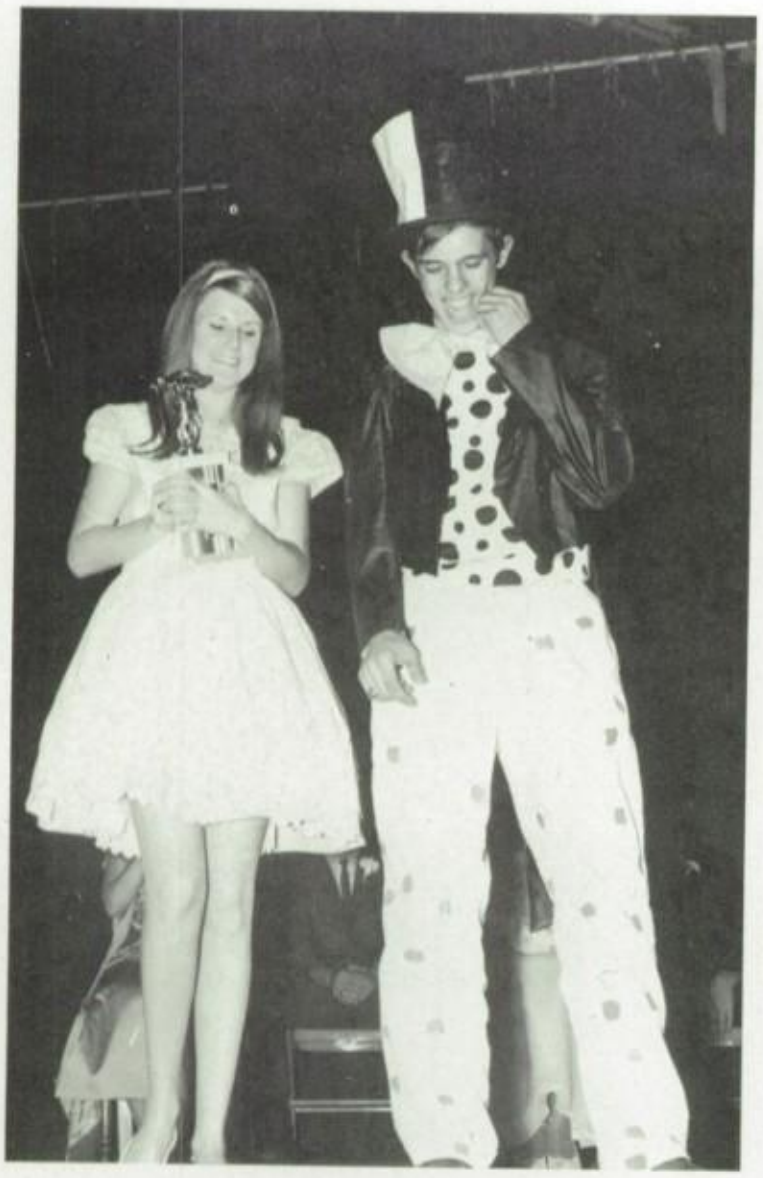
Wow! And I though I had a shape.

This is the privilege that freshmen love most. Well . . . at least it's better than picking up papers.

Homecoming



Christian Life Club members, John Latino and Lynn Hogue, accept the trophy for the best club car.

A flaming bonfire helps to put Saint Mary's students in a homecoming mood.

Princesses Nancy and Sandi smile happily for the festivities.

Pacific Avenue, chilly in the early-fall evening . . . "Rams in Wonderland." The story book opens, and all the characters are there in a golf cart, with a hooka-smoking caterpillar on top. Does Wonderland include Outer Space? On campus a bonfire, leaping like a fiery geyser is deserted before its climax. Sound compressed into the hot, crowded gym, deafens everyone. Hear us shouting "We are . . . S.M., We are . . . S.M." as the alumni, looking happy and sheepish, watch, too shy to shout. Six princesses . . . intolerable suspense . . . Judi crying and shouts of "Long live the Queen!" Fireworks and we won the game . . . the dance and then a very loud silence.

The St. Mary's band adds color and music to Homecoming '68.

The Junior class captures first place in the float competition with its unique spaceship.

"Let's go out for a milkshake, Bruce."

Chris Baysinger adds the finishing touches to the colorful KETTLE car.

The first temptation, Sensual Pleasure. Stephen Ince and Peter Shoemaker

The third temptation, alliance against the king with the barons. Ray Punta and Peter Shoemaker

The cast: Left to right. Women of Canterbury, four tempters, three priests, messenger (seated), and Archbishop Thomas a Becket

Murder in the Cathedral, under the direction of Father Kirk Ullery, was the first dramatic production at St. Mary's this year. The play,. which has been called "the most sustained poetic drama" of the past three years, examines the question of martyrdom focusing on Thomas a Becket struggles with himself to reconcile his own desires with the will of God. Eliot used the structure of classical tragedy, including a chorus of women of Canterbury representing "everyman", to develop the mood of the drama and to illustrate the effects of personal and political struggle on a universal scale. The highly praised production, which was staged at old St. Mary's Church, ran for three days in December to a consistently full house. It was a great success for Father Kirk, the cast, and all others involved.

Assemblies

A unique addition to the school organizations this year was the Assembly Committee, headed by Mrs. Shoemaker. The group arranged varied entertainment, including a sing-out by the national "Up With People" cast and a review by members of the Stockton Civic Theater.

Apart from the committee was the work of Sr. M. Francis O.P. who organized the Christmas assembly and the annual St. Francis day assembly held in honor of the Franciscan Fathers.

Spirit Week

Walking amazed through the jungle, we found Lincoln in a cage in the middle of a carnival. From Victory City to Hangtown we had the Trojans on the run.

When asked what she thought of Spirit Week, a Freshman replied, "It was good; it was great! We had something to do, and when we finished, it was pretty to look at." Why? What did Spirit Week mean? "The best thing about it was that it unified our class. It gave us a chance to work together and to know each other."

After a week of speculation and excitement the freshmen hall was acclaimed the best, and with the "Trojan Safari" the seniors won the rally competition.

The natives are restless with victory.

Freshmen mill around the saloon to muster courage for the big roundup.

Jovial junior clowns make last minute preparations for their skit.

Lively sophs display their spirit with banners and cheers during the Spirit Week rally.

"You people aren't going to believe this . . ."

"Stop that, Sister. You're tickling me."

"Our group had 44% more cavities, and we don't give a darn."

"Move over, Mr. Silva."

"I can't promise that you'll look as sexy as me, but . . ."
